BUILDINGS COLLAPSE.

Fatal Fall of a Tenement House Near Providence.

THREE KILLED, TWO FATALLY HURT

Nine Others Receive Injuries More or Less Serious — One Killed and Two Fatally Hurt While Removing the Wall of a Burned Building in Chicago.

PROVIDENCE, May 18.—A two and a half story wooden tenement house, owned by Joseph LeMoine and occupied by him and several other French families, in that part of the town of Coventry known as "Jericho," seven miles from this city, collapsed late yesterday afternoon and three persons were killed and eleven injured. It is thought that two of the latter are fatally hurt. The building had been raised to permit the building of another story beneath it.

The killed are: Mrs. Mabel Guertin, 50 years old, occupant of house; Asa Aldrich, 55 years old, workman employed in raising house; 2½-year-old child of Louis LeMoine, occupant of house.

The injured are: Mrs. LeMoine, aged 70 years, crushed, bruised and injured, probably fatally; Noah Richards, workman, scalp wounds, side crushed, probably fatal internal injuries; Mrs. Louis LeMoine, 35, injured about head; Fred Balliere, 10, scalp wounds, unconscious; Frank LeMoine, 18, leg fractured; Joseph LeMoine, 85, serious contusions, —— Gosselin, 10, scalp wounds, shoulder crushed. Two small children named Gauniore were also seriously injured. Two others sustained slight injuries, but were able to care for themselves.

The building was about fifty feet long, with a frontage of twenty feet. The lower portion was formerly a store and the owner recently decided to raise it thirty feet and fit up the lower stories for tenements, and about three weeks ago Contractor Poole, of Apponaug, began the work, and the structure was raised to the required height. The two families in the upper stories did not move out, as they were told the building was perfectly safe.

While the men were working at the underpinning the building, without warning, slid off the piles on which it rested and pitched endwise into the street, striking the ground with a terrific crash as it was split and smashed into a mass of kindling wood. From the ruins rose the cries of the injured and dying, and the passers-by and others at once began the work of rescue. In the excitement the Centreville fire department was summoned, and they rendered valuable assistance in tearing away the debris. An alarm was rung up on the mill bells and soon thousands had gathered at the scene.

Meanwhile the rescuers were tearing apart the mass of splintered beams and boards, and soon came upon the body of a woman lying in the street under the second floor. It was crushed into a condition almost past recognition, but from the clothing it was identified as that of Mrs. Guertin, a widow who lived on the second floor. A short distance away the body of a child was found. The neck was broken and the lower parts were badly mangled. Half an hour later the body of Asa Aldrich, of Arctic Centre, was found. His back was broken and his head crushed into pulp. Aldrich was in the act of moving a heavy jack under the building when it started on its downward plunge.

Mrs. Joseph LeMoine, wife of the owner of the building, and Noah Richards, a workman, were taken from the ruins so badly injured that they will probably die, half a dozen others, including children, who had been playing near by, were also injured. Joseph LeMoine, a man 85 years old, escaped with severe bruises and a bad shaking up.

Another Falling Building Fatality.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Three men were buried under a brick wall which collapsed at the Globe Moulding works, Sangamon street and Fourteenth place. One of the men, William Nangle, was so badly injured that he died within a few minutes after being taken to the hospital. Of the other two, James Carbine received a fractured skull and will probably die, and Thomas Burns, who was badly battered up about the body, will recover. The building had been burned a short time ago and the injured men, with eight others, were engaged in tearing down the walls. A high wind which was blowing toppled part of the wall over and the three men were caught.

Town Destroyed, Thirty Burned to Death.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 18.—The town of Brest-Litewski, in the province of Grodno, Russian Poland, was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and thirty persons were burned to death. Brest-Litewski was a town of about 40,000 inhabitants.

Spain's Apology to Uncle Sam.

MADRID, May 18.—The Spanish government has completed its final answer to Secretary Gresham's dispatch concerning the Alliance incident, and it will be cabled by Minister Taylor to Washington. The text of the reply will not be given here, but it is known to be entirely responsive to Mr. Gresham's requests, and to be in a most cordial and friendly spirit. It is understood to disavow the action of the officer who fired on the Alliance and to disavow the jurisdictional right of Spain over American vessels at the point where the Alliance was fired on.

Walsh Acquitted of Wife Murder.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 18.—The jury in the case of Edwin A. Walsh, of Mahanoy Plane, charged with murdering his wife on the night of Feb 23, after being out all night, brought in a verdict of not guilty. The court room was crowded, and the spectators, who had closely watched the course of the trial, seemed pleased with the verdict. The prisoner was immediately released.

GIANTS AT DEBATE.

DIVERGENT VIEWS ON FINANCE.

Both Sides of the Money Question Presented at Chicago by Men Who Are Acknowledged as Leaders Among Monometallists and Bimetallists.

CHICAGO, May 17.—A stirring political encounter took place last night, hardly paralleled in the west since the famous struggle between Lincoln and Douglas, just on the eve of the civil war. The combatants were two giants of the opposing sides in the raging financial controversy—J. Lawrence Laughlin, professor of political economy in the University of Chicago, the favorite authority of President Cleveland, and William H. Harvey, author of "Coins Financial School."

The spacious rooms of the Illinois club on stately Ashland boulevard were crowded to suffocation when the president, Dr. Homer M. Thomas, read the proposition to be discussed as follows:

"Resolved, that the United States should at once enter upon the free coinage of silver at the ratio 16 to 1, independently of the action of any other nation."

For the affirmative Mr. Harvey said in part: "The first reason why I am in favor of independent action by this country is that we should not be subjected to the influences of the governments of Europe. If people can be reduced to poverty, and the prosperity of the United States can be ruined by hanging to the financial policy of Europe, then we can be reduced to the same condition by financial legislation as a war of conquest would reduce us.

"Our friends, the monometallists, mostly say, 'We admit bimetallism would be good if we could get international bimetallism.' In other words they agree that there is something radically wrong, but claim that we are tied to the financial policy of Europe. Where there is a necessity there is a remedy. The governments of Europe are plutocracies. They squeeze the lemon for the people about every so often. The few control class legislation, and the masses are hewers of wood and drawers of water for the titled few. Now, if financial legislation is one of the classes of class legislation by which the many are robbed and the few are enriched, then it is one of the institutions of the European governments that we, as a nation of people, republican in form, should declare our independence.

"This nation can have an independent financial system without any reference whatever to the balance of the world, and can carry on its own commerce with other governments of the world notwithstanding. Primarily, balances of trade are settled with trade. We give them our wheat and we take their silks, and the balance that we may owe them or they owe us will be settled just as the merchant between the importing prince may agree to settle it. There is no such thing as an international money.

"What we want is bimetallism, and scientific bimetallism is this: Free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver, these two metals to constitute the primary or redemption money of the government. The money coined from both metals to be legal tender in the payment of all debts. The operation as to which of the two moneys is to be paid in the liquidation of a debt to rest with the debtor.

"We would again make the standard silver dollar the unit of value, as it was before 1873. We would make gold coins of the value of so many silver units or dollars, as the law existed prior to 1873. Silver is the people's money.

"We would allow no private individual to dictate to the government what its legal tender money should be. There was to be no two yardsticks. The rich man's money—gold—was recoined when the commercial ratio changed to interfere with the legal ratio.

"The bank of Rothschilds in England is now behind the United States treasury. They are our financial agents; our financial managers. We are paying them the princely salary of $8,000,000 for each six months of their valuable services. We are in the hands of the pawnbrokers of Europe. Put silver in competition with gold as quick as possible. The extra demand for silver will raise its value. Everything will advance in value at once."

Professor Laughlin, replying for the negative, said:

"There is no more essential need of an increased amount of measure with which to compare goods than there is or should be a number of yardsticks equal to the number of yards of cloth in a store.

"The idea of supposing that much money is required in order to have something with which to measure goods is as absurd as to suppose that a community must have bearers in number equal to the population. What is important is that the goods when expressed in terms of a common denominator of value are today exchanged in enormous quantities, mainly without the use of any money. The necessity of an increasing quantity of money is growing less important with the development of this system of exchanges. From 92 per cent. to 95 per cent. of transactions are performed by this machinery without the use of money, and recent investigations by the comptroller of the currency show that 54 per cent. of retail transactions are similarly performed without the use of money.

"We express the value of goods in terms of money, but then we really exchange them almost entirely by means of the deposit currency. Transactions expressed in terms of money are based not upon coin, but upon the goods bought and sold. Coin only is a means of going from one set of goods to another. Prices since 1873 have not fallen because of the lack of money. Silver has fallen about 50 per cent. as compared with a very modest fall in the price of commodities. Silver does not have the same purchasing price in 1894 as in 1873. Hence, free coinage cannot be urged as a just means of paying debt.

"Since we undertook the purchase of silver, in 1878, it has fallen about one-half in value, although we have purchased about $600,000,000. It is perfectly evident that there is no use in the United States acting alone to bolster up the price when we have failed even in concert with the Latin Union.

"As free coinage of silver would inevitably result in a fall of wages, its first effect would be to diminish the purchasing power of all wages. The man who gets $500 or $100,000 a year as a fixed rate of wages or salary will find he can buy just half as much as now. Are we willing to sacrifice the interests of the laboring classes to the demands of certain owners of silver mines who are trying to hoodwink the people with the cry of more money?

"No trick or sophistry can make the scaling of debt to mean anything but dishonesty and cheating. Were free coinage of silver to be passed it would mean that every depositor in a savings bank, every investor in a loan association, every holder of a life insurance policy, every recipient of a pension would have their dues reduced one-half. Is it possible that there is something behind this free coinage scheme not really discovered?

"Extraordinary as is the proposal for free coinage, it is in truth only a huge disease. It was born in the private offices of the silver kings, nursed at the hands of the speculators, clothed in economic error, fed on boodle, and as sure as there is honesty and truth in the American heart it will die young and be buried in the same ignominious grave wherein lies the now forgotten infant once famous as the rag baby."

FINANCE AND TRADE.

The Cold Snap Has Retarded Retail Trade, but Improvement Continues.

NEW YORK, May 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The severe cold snap, with extensive frosts and in some states snow, has fortunately done little damage to the great crops, though much to fruit, but has considerably retarded retail trade. The best news of the week is the advance of 10 per cent. in wages by the Carnegie works, followed by the Jones-Laughlin establishment, and evidently implying a similar advance by many other concerns. The Illinois Steel company is starting its furnaces without granting the demands of employes.

No advance has been found practicable in the woolen mills, where conditions as to prices and foreign competition are very different, and about 10,000 workers are still idle at Olneyville, where the works should consume 600,000 pounds per week. In other departments of labor troubles are not serious, and the demand for manufactured products increases.

Failures during the past week have been 211 in the United States, against 219 last year, and 37 in Canada, against 21 last year.

Bradstreets' review says: General trade conditions throughout the country continue in the main quite favorable. Activity in speculative and investment circles has exceeded that in merchandise lines, but gains made in the latter have in nearly all instances been retained.

Suspected of a Terrible Outrage.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 18.—At Parker, eight miles east of here, at an early hour in the morning, the boarding house of Mrs. John Hewitt was wrecked by a dynamite explosion. Mrs. Hewitt and her daughter Susie were taken out of the wreck unconscious, and both terribly injured. Mrs. Hewitt is injured internally and her daughter's legs crushed. Mrs. Hewitt was living apart from her husband, and he and his son were arrested.

White Man Lynched in Kentucky.

MARION, Ky., May 17.—John Howerton, white, was lynched here about 1 o'clock in the morning. On April 25 Howerton assaulted Anna Pierce, the 16-year-old daughter of a prominent farmer, who now lies in a critical condition, with slight hopes for her recovery. A mob stormed the jail and compelled the jailer to give up the keys. The prisoner was then taken to a slaughter house and strung up.

Refused to Replace the Strikers.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., May 18.—The Italians brought here have refused to go to work. Two hundred left the Southwest Virginia mines yesterday. They will be sent back north by the company. The Southwest company claim to have 400 men at the mines today. The stampede of new miners has encouraged the strikers.

Twenty-three Stoways in One Trip.

MONTREAL, May 18.—There were no less than twenty-three stowaways on board the steamship British Prince, which has arrived at this port from Liverpool. All were able bodied men, and none of them showed themselves until the ship was well out to sea. They were put to work during the passage, doing all all the chores.

Dismembered by a Car.

HARRISBURG, May 18.—William Winters, a Pennsylvania railroad freight conductor, of this city, had his leg and arm cut off in the yards last night while roping cars, and died soon after. He was pulled under the train by a rope. He was 35 years old.

Resumed at the Old Scale.

COLUMBUS, May 18.—A special to The Dispatch say the miners near Alliance have resumed work at the old scale. A Dicksontown destitute men are begging of farmers and killing sheep and cattle.

ODD FELLOWS' JUBILEE.

TO DEDICATE A BEAUTIFUL HOME.

Description of the Building and Sketch of Its Chief Promoter — Many Thousands Will Visit Philadelphia on Tuesday Next to View the Pageant.

PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—One of the greatest occasions in the history of secret societies will be the Odd Fellows' jubilee next week in this city, when the new Odd Fellows' Temple will be dedicated. Arrangements have been made with the various railroads for one fare for the round trip from all points in the United States, and the characteristic hospitality of the Quaker City will doubtless be tested to its utmost limit.

It is estimated that 150,000 visitors will be drawn to Philadelphia to witness the ceremonies attending the dedication of the new Temple, which will occur on Tuesday next. The annual session of the Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania, lasting from May 20 to 27, will be participated in by 1,500 representatives from nearly every town and hamlet in the state. Besides there will be present the Grand Lodge officers of all the adjacent states, who will come on special trains accompanied by large delegations of Odd Fellows. Forty thousand men, with 100 bands of music, will participate in the great parade, in which there will be 5,000 plumed and belted chevaliers of the Patriarchs Militant, Springfield, Mass., alone sending 350 of these, and San Francisco sending a delegation.

THE NEW ODD FELLOWS' TEMPLE.

Philadelphia is also the stronghold of the Order of Odd Fellows, there being 30,000 in the city, 115,000 in Pennsylvania and nearly a million in the country.

The grand encampment will meet on Monday morning, presided over by Grand Patriarch F. L. B. Keifer, and on Tuesday the Temple will be dedicated, after which the big parade under Grand Marshal Samuel McKeever and Chief of Staff Harry S. Wright, will form at 1:30 p. m., moving promptly at 2 p. m. The sessions of the grand lodge will be presided over by Grand Master Harry L. Neall.

Grand Master Harry L. Neall was born less than thirty-six years ago in the Quaker City. He received a liberal education in the Philadelphia public schools, and studied law under the tutorship of the present secretary of internal affairs of this state—General Latta. His success as a lawyer is but the logical result of the characteristics of the man and his undisputed ability. For a number of years he has ably discharged the duties of secretary of the Philadelphia civil service board.

He is an active member of Robert Morris Lodge No. 23, of Philadelphia, and from his connection with the triple links has taken an active interest in its works. The magnificent structure to be dedicated on Tuesday will ever remain a monument to his indefatigable zeal and progressive rigorous, broad, liberal conceptions of what the order should accomplish, and its great possibilities. While others deserve like credit for the construction of this great building, yet its dedication will be the fruition of patient, untiring work upon the part of Grand Master Harry L. Neall.

The new Odd Fellows' Temple is the greatest structure of its kind in the country, costing a round million dollars. Bonds were issued to the extent of nearly $800,000, which were easily disposed of to the lodges which will have headquarters in the building. The work of raising the funds was put in the hands of the building committee of the Hall association and they have worked diligently and conscientiously. This committee is composed of Harry L. Neall, chairman; Henry Kengott, secretary; Edwin L. Ritter, M. S. Olley, James Bingham, William McCracken, Louis S. Amonson, John B. Reeves, Charles H. Goldey, Theodore E. Smith, William A. Witherup, A. T. Zeising, Charles Crane, Jr., Drayton S. Lewis, John B. Stauffer, Frank A. Snowden, D. O. Boorse, R. A. Rockhill, George R. Brown, A. E. Keeler and E. B. Kelly, who is a practical builder.

On the ten floors all but four will be used for the purpose of the order. There are fifteen lodge rooms, varying from 35 by 45 feet to 45 by 50 feet, with a ceiling 16¾ feet high. The decorations differ, no two lodge rooms being finished alike. As there will be six lodges meeting in each room, ninety lodges every week will be accommodated. Two anterooms are attached to each lodge room, one of which is provided with numerous wardrobes and compartments for the storage of regalia and paraphernalia. Each lodge room is beautifully lighted by day by numerous windows made of opaque glass, and at night incandescent ceiling lights, covered with large ground glass globes, illuminate the rooms.

At the northwest corner of the eighth floor is a banquet room, 45 by 35 feet, with a seating capacity of 360 or more. Adjacent to it are a serving room and dumb waiter, which connects with the kitchen above.

The assembly room or auditorium is on the Cherry street side, at the eastern end, on the first floor. It is in this room that the Grand Lodge will hold its sessions, but the public will be interested in it, as it will be let for balls and concerts. The auditorium is 70x90 feet and the ceiling is forty feet high. Upon the stage will be built a good pipe organ. The seating capacity is 1,200. Anterooms, cloak rooms and a ticket office complete the appointments. A memorial in honor of Howell Hopkins, the first president of the Hall association, will be placed in the auditorium.

The degree room, in which the secret floor work will be performed, is 50 by 70 feet, and large double doors open into the anteroom, affording plenty of space for the team performing the work to move in and out in columns of four without swerving from the proper line of march. One side of the degree room will be fitted with scenery which may be shifted. An especial convenience will be found in the large and numerous anterooms. A parlor for the use of ladies has been provided on the fourth floor, and in the tenth floor there will be dining rooms and restaurants, open to the public.

The building is in the Italian renaissance style of architecture, chaste and pure in design, with all the decorations and furnishings in harmony with this period. The material used is largely brick and terra cotta surmounted on a solid granite base, making it one of the most imposing structures in Philadelphia.

The ceremonies in connection with the dedication of the new Temple will be inaugurated tomorrow morning by the attendance of members of the order in Philadelphia and from nearby counties at divine service in the Tabernacle Baptist church, Eighteenth and Chestnut streets. Grand Master Neall has made a formal request for this occasion and a very large gathering will be present. Rev. George E. Rees, pastor of the church, will preach the sermon.

Anarchy Prevailing in Formosa.

LONDON, May 18.—The Times prints a dispatch from Kong Kong which says that anarchy prevails in the northern part of the Island of Formosa, and riots are of daily occurrence, numerous persons having been killed and wounded. General Ku Hong Kuk, a Hatta chief, has proclaimed himself king of the northern portion of the island, and several thousand well equipped soldiers have joined his standard, and his force increases daily. The Chinese authorities have captured and beheaded many of his followers, but the revolt seems to be spreading. China advocates the recognition by the powers of a Formosan republic.

The Distinguished Invalids.

WASHINGTON, May 18. — Secretary of State Gresham is reported to be resting comfortably. Representative Hitt's condition is reported to be slightly improved. Representative Cogswell, of Massachusetts, is worse again, and his condition gives rise to much apprehension regarding the outcome. Miss Mary Abigail Dodge (Gail Hamilton) was worse again yesterday, though she is reported to be resting more easily this morning. Her system fails to respond to the treatment of the physician and her friends are very much concerned about her, though the case is not regarded as entirely hopeless.

The Case of Murderer Buchanan.

ALBANY, May 18.—The statement that District Attorney Fellows would appear before the court of appeals Monday and ask the court to order Warden Sage of Sing Sing prison to bring Robert W. Buchanan before the court for resentence has created quite a stir here. Never in the recollection of any person attached to the court has this body been known to pronounce the death sentence, and it is believed that they will refuse to take any action except that of ordering the lower court in New York to resentence.

Britannia Defeats Ailsa.

GRAVESEND, Eng., May 18.—The first important yacht race of the season was started from here yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the New Thames Yacht club. The course was from Gravesend to and around a buoy beyond South End and return, a distance of about fifty miles. In the race for the large yachts Ailsa, Britannia, Isolde and Caress started. Britannia won in 3h., 17 min., 50 sec., with Ailsa three minutes behind her.

Admiral Meade to be Retired.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The president has decided to comply with Admiral Meade's request to be placed on the retired list, and that officer's active career will be terminated on Monday next. An order retiring a naval officer does not relieve him of responsibility for any act while on duty or since his detachment should his superior officers order an investigation into any matters previously arising.

No Special Privileges in China.

LONDON, May 18.—A dispatch to The Times from Tientsin says that France, Germany and Russia object to any financial scheme under which China shall confer special rights on any nation. This frustrates the reported proposals of an American syndicate to advance the amount of the indemnity demanded by Japan on the security of concessions of the right to build a railway in China.

AGAINST PREJUDICE.

"Prejudice is a thief and robs us of many good things." Not the least of those of which it deprives some of us is the aid of the most valuable medicines upon which we look with suspicion, simply because they are proprietary preparations. Yet in certain cases those medicines are perfected results of the highest scientific knowledge. There is Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, put up in accordance with a prescription that is employed with unbounded success. There is actually nothing so good to restore the disordered organs to health and to purify the blood. This has been proved in thousands of cases. The person who would hesitate to use Favorite Remedy because it is proprietary medicine, would be foolish.

BLOWN UP WITH DYNAMITE.

Burglars Rob the Honesdale Post office. The Safe Shattered.

Twice within the past two months the post office in Honesdale has been visited by burglars.

The first time a man named Boland was passing the office and saw two masked men working at the safe. While he was watching them through the window a third masked man stepped up, presented a revolver, and ordered him to move on. He moved, and the burglars gave up the job and escaped.

Thursday night, the office was visited again, but this time the burglars were not interrupted. They blew the safe to fragments with dynamite and carried off the money drawer. The stamps were not disturbed.

The robbery was not discovered until the office was opened in the morning and, strange to say, the explosion was not heard by any one.

Killed on the Erie Track.

James Hammell, while sitting on the rails of the Erie's Bergen county short cut, yesterday morning, was struck by the Erie's Tuxedo express and instantly killed. His body was carried 200 yards and horribly mangled. Hammell was a ne'er do well and is said to have been drunk at the time.

"Little Coney Island."

Messrs. McIlvane & Wood opened "Little Coney Island" at Bauer's Park, adjoining Midway Park, last evening. All sorts of amusements are to be found, from a shooting gallery to knocking down the babies for cigars.

A Whist Party.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dorrance entertained their friends at whist at their residence on Wickham avenue, last evening. Favors were won by Mrs. W. E. Douglas and Mr. Wm. L. Millspaugh.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

Poor Pie

is responsible for many of man's (and woman's) physical woes—but the pie needn't be poor, and it may bring joy instead of woe. How? Use nothing but COTTOLENE for shortening and the pie crust will be delicate, flaky, delicious, and so healthful that even a dyspeptic can eat freely of it and be comfortable. COTTOLENE can't be equalled as a shortening, and is absolutely healthful. Genuine has this trade mark on every pail. Take no other.

WANTED TIMOTHY MONGAN'S MONEY

While He Was Visiting His Parents Burglars Attempted to Enter His Room.

While Mr. Timothy Mongan, of this city, was visiting, Friday night, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mongan, in the town of Thompson, Sullivan county, an attempt was made to enter his sleeping apartment. His mother was awakened by a voice and, going out doors, saw two men on the roof of an extension, trying to effect an entrance into Mr. Mongan's room. They fled when they saw Mrs. Mongan. Investigation showed that they had reached the roof by means of a ladder taken from the barn. The would-be burglars are supposed to be residents of the locality, who knew of Mr. Mongan's visit to his parents, and supposed he had considerable money in his possession.

NORWICH'S CHURCH QUARREL.

A faction in the Norwich Baptist Church, which desires to reorganize the society according to the law of 1876, had called a meeting for that purpose, Wednesday evening, in the church parlors. The trustees, who do not want to be reorganized out of office, refused to open the church and although notices signed by all the trustees were circulated that the proposed meeting was illegal and all persons were warned not to trespass on the church grounds, the meeting was held in front of the church and a new board of trustees was elected.

Mischievous persons who were not duly impressed with the solemnity of the occasion and who thought it no irreverence to help along the church quarrel burned red fire and exploded firecrackers on the outskirts of the crowd, while the election was in progress.

It is understood that the old Board of Trustees will resist in the courts any attempt to displace them. The quarrel threatens very serious consequences to the church.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Columbias' Dance—The Making of a Nine—Ontarios and Columbias—Last Year's Asylum Players

—Remember the ball for the benefit of the Columbia Base Ball Club, at the Assembly Rooms, Monday evening, May 20 h. Tickets only twenty five cents. Ladies free.

—With McGreevy and Chesebro in the points, Thursday, Albany lost by a score of 9 to 4, to Amsterdam. This is the first game that the Asylum battery has lost since the State League opened.

—With a battery, and Clinton, Degnan, Butts, Bradley, Murray, Agnew and Sweezy, we could have a ball team that would make it quite interesting for the average team that has come here for the past five years. Lovers of the game don't like to see one sided game, with a score of 25 to 2

—The Ontarios and Columbias will probably cross bats on the Hospital Grounds, Decoration Day. As both teams are composed of good players a lively contest may be expected.

—"Pete" Agnew, catcher of the Columbias, has signed with the Slate Hill Base Ball Club, this year. "Pete" is a good all-around player, and will soon make a good mark on the diamond.

—Are we going to have a ball team? is a question that is asked the writer, every day. Well, we are waiting to hear from Manager Cook is the answer.

—Genegel and Lawler, of the Gloversville, are doing some heavy stick work. Keep it up, boys.

—Madison is the only player on the Albany team that is not complaining of a "glass arm." "Art." is a good one.

—Phœnix Engine Company has organized a ball team and would like to hear from the other companies in this city for a match game.

—Why not start a league between the several fire companies in this city? Each company contains several good players and would make it quite interesting for all. Manager Cook would be more than pleased to let them use the hospital grounds.

—The Albany correspondent of the Sporting Life has the following to say of the Middletown players on that team: Chesebro is our only reliable man; Tierney is our heaviest hitter; Madison is already the "idol" of the ladies.

State League Games.

Charles Tierney pitched part of the game at Albany, yesterday, against Troy. The latter won 17 to 7. Gloversville was also beaten by Amsterdam, 9 to 4.

COURT COULDN'T MOVE HIM.

Ex-Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Murphy, Who Guarded His Records, Speaks in Praise of Paine's Celery Compound.

Ex-collector of internal revenue Thomas F. Murphy of Maine, who was brought into prominence all over the country during President Cleveland's first administration by refusing to allow certain civil officials to peruse his records, heartily indorses Paine's celery compound.

Mr. Murphy is a keen observer. He is a writer of no mean ability, has been employed as editor and editorial writer on several papers, is recognized throughout Maine as a forcible and convincing speaker, and is universally liked. At present he represents a big Boston house on the road, where his warm geniality makes him welcome to every hotel and railway train.

In the smoking compartment of a parlor car last week he was praising Paine's celery compound to a fellow passenger. The person to whom he addressed his conversation had been laid up with the grip. The malady left him in a bad way, sort of depression of spirits and a disinclination for business.

"I felt the same way," said Mr. Murphy. "After wrestling a week with the grip it left me depressed and weak. One flight of stairs was enough to make me puff and wheeze like a leaky bellows. A mile walk would almost floor me. Headaches began the moment I got out of bed, and I felt about as mean as any one could for the whole day. Hearing so much about Paine's celery compound I made up my mind to try it, and I'll tell you how it worked. It was like close applications of soothing lotions to a scorched finger. After a few doses I found that on retiring I soon dropped into a sound, refreshing sleep. In less than a week I was myself again. My eyes, which are none too strong at their best, but which burned and ached till I began taking Paine's celery compound, assumed their normal condition and really seemed stronger than before the grip marked me for a victim. I can walk five miles now and feel none the worse for it.

"My wife and boy are taking Paine's celery compound.

Rumored Elopement in Port Jervis

The Gazette says that Smead R Miller and Miss Myrtle Barrett, of Port Jervis, have disappeared, and it is believed by their friends that they have eloped.

Miller had boasted to his acquaintances that he would marry Miss Barrett in spite of the opposition of her parents, and the young lady had told her friends that she would cause a sensation soon.

The Erie's Decoration Day Excursion.

A grand holiday excursion to New York will be given by the Erie, on Decoration Day, May 30th. A special train, both ways, stopping only as far east as Turners, will be run, and everything will be done to make this one of the most successful of their many popular excursions. The fare for the round trip will be $1. Particulars regarding time of trains, etc., will be given later.

Will Move His Remains to Hillside.

From the Port Jervis Gazette

Among those who attended the recent Sunday school convention in this village, was the widow of George Miller, a former resident of Port Jervis, and who died last February in Jersey City, and was buried in Laurel Grove Cemetery. Mrs. Miller lives in Middletown, and it is her intention to cause the remains of her husband to be reinterred in Hillside Cemetery, alongside of her son, Altie, who died in that city, Thursday, April 25th.

New Jersey Prices Sixty-three Years Ago.

The Sussex Independent has been looking over a copy of the New Jersey Herald of the date of June 5th, 1832, and finds much that is of interest in its columns. An item of local interest is an account of a severe snow storm which had prevailed a short time before in Sullivan county, N. Y. The Newton market reports show that butter was fifteen cents a pound, wheat a dollar a bushel, rye and corn sixty-two cents. At Easton, rye whiskey was worth thirty-five cents a gallon, and apple whiskey thirty-seven cents.

EAGLE HOSE CO.'S CLAMBAKE.

Many Tickets Being Sold—The Company's Fine Service Record Help the New House Along.

The members of Eagle Hose Company are "hustling" with the tickets for their clambake, which is to be given at Midway Park, on Memorial Day afternoon and evening. Very few people refuse to purchase a ticket when it is offered to them and the object of the benefit is explained. Everyone wants to see Eagles located in a home of their own, and apparently most people are willing to contribute a small share toward that end.

The excellent work done by Eagle Hose Company since the advent of its patrol wagon and horses has commended itself to all who have given the matter a thought.

Besides the driver, Otis Hardenbergh, three members, known as "bunkers," sleep in the truck house every night, and are ready before the first round of the alarm has finished sounding to jump into the wagon and start for the fire. It is the first five minutes' work at a fire which is the most effective and the fact that there have been no serious fires in our city for several years is largely due to the efforts of Eagle Hose Company.

The foundation of their new home on Foundry street is completed and on Monday work upon the side walls will be commenced. It is more than probable that the building will be commenced at once, three stories high instead of stopping at the first story as was the original intention. There will be little difficulty in renting the third floor of the structure as several parties have already made overtures for its possession.

HYMENEAL.

Brown—Riley.

From Our Montgomery Correspondent

At about 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening at the Brick Church, before a large assemblage of invited guests, Mr. Walter H. Brown, of Cornwall, and Miss Henrietta Bookstaver, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Riley, who live about a mile east of this village, were united in marriage by the Rev. R H. McCready, of Chester, formerly of this place. The wedding was an exceedingly pretty one, the church being decorated most profusely.

The bride's dress was of white silk trimmed with ribbon. She wore a veil and carried a large bouquet of white roses.

The bridal procession presented a most pleasing scene as it passed up the aisle, while Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered.

After the knot was tied the couple and guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptious repast was in waiting.

The bride is highly esteemed in the community and has taught school at a number of places. We extend congratulations.

New Church at Tuxedo.

Largely through the efforts of Rev. Father Quinn, of Suffern, funds have been raised for the erection of a new Catholic Church at Tuxedo. The church will be of wood, about 40x60 feet, and will cost about $10,000. Mead & Taft, of Cornwall, have been awarded the contract and the work is now in progress.

The County Road System in Rockland.

Rockland county Supervisors will raise $7,900 for the county road system the coming year. Of this amount Clarkstown will be apportioned $2,000; Haverstraw $1,800; Orangetown $1,800; Ramapo $1,100; Stony Point $1 200.

John Drew at the Casino

A False Diagnosis

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the head, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggists, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with LaGrippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after useing three bottles was up and about again. SATURDAY, MAY 18 1895.

The income tax receipts, thus far, amount to only $75.164.

The New York Herald tersely says of the "reform" legislature: "There have been worse legislatures—in Arizona."

During the legislative session, Gov. Morton vetoed but five bills, but 162 bills were recalled to avoid veto, the Governor having notified their sponsors that he would not approve them.

Wheat prices in Chicago took a big jump upward, yesterday, and prediction are freely made that the price will touch the dollar mark before many months have passed.

The Illinois Steel Company, at Joliet, and the Bellaire Steel Works, at Wheeling, W. Va., have just granted their employees advances of fifteen per cent. As time passes the Democratic tariff is justifying all the claims that its advocates made for it.

Medical students at Michigan University, with a rare sense of delicate humor, made a sandwich from human flesh and gave it to one of their fellow students, who ate a mouthful or two before he learned the "joke."

Several New Jersey cities have of late been flooded with counterfeit pennies of the date 1877. The profits of counterfeiting such a minor coin are very small but the risk of circulating it is almost nothing, and small profits and no risk undoubtedly appeal to petty knaves.

The Democrats were in control of the executive and legislative branches of the State government in 1892 and 1893, and the tax rates for those years were 1 98 and 2 58. The Republican platform of last fall promised "a minimized tax rate;" the reckless extravagance of the Legislature has made necessary a tax rate for the current year of 3 24, the highest since 1880.

The Vanderbilts and their friends are reported to have acquired control of the Philadelphia and Reading road, and now own 500,000 of the 800,000 shares. The possession of Reading is part of a scheme for the control of the anthracite coal trade, and was necessary for the protection of the Vanderbilt interests in the Delaware and Lackawanna, and Delaware and Hudson properties. It is expected that the financial reorganization of the Reading road will be effected at once.

A change of venue will be asked for Inspector McLaughlin on the ground that so much prejudice exists in New York against the accused, that he cannot have a fair trial. It is possible if the motion is granted that the case may be sent to Broome or Saratoga county, counties near New York being so much in touch with New York sentiment, that no advantage would result from sending the case to them. This is a lucky thing for Orange and other near by counties, for we have enough criminal business of our own, and jury duty is onerous enough without the importation of New York cases. If we remember rightly, the last New York case tried in this county was that of Polly Bodine for the murder of her husband, over half a century ago.

THE CITIES OF NEW YORK

The State of New York has now thirty seven cities, Johnstown being the baby of the Empire State's municipal family. PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

Seventy-four Members In Contempt for Blocking House Proceedings.

HARRISBURG May 18.—Warrants were issued yesterday by Speaker Walton for the arrest of seventy four members of the house of representatives They are in contempt of the house for absenting themselves without leave Their absence prevented the transaction of business yesterday, and forced an adjournment until next Monday evening Sergeant at-Arms Shoener went to Philadelphia to arrest the members from that city in contempt His deputies started for other sections of the state with warrants for absent members All that can be found will be brought before the bar of the house on Monday evening one by one, to be purged of their contempt

There was a slim attendance when the house went into session at 9 o'clock Seventy appropriation bills were read the first time Then revenue bills were taken up on second reading The Lawrence bill, taxing bank stocks four mills on their actual value was called up and passed with only two dissenting votes Much time was given to discussing the Cochrane bill, taxing beer twenty four cents a barrel of thirty one gallons Mr Cochrane amended the bill to except exports and beer in demijohns or bottles that is taken from barrels on which the tax is paid The measure then passed second reading by a vote of 88 to 19

Mr Foltz moved to proceed to consideration of the bill to prevent and punish pool selling and the yeas and nays were called by Mr Fow The vote stood 77 to 19 or one less than a quorum Sergeant at Arms Shoener was summoned to the bar by Speaker Walton and ordered to remove all strangers from the floor lock the doors and permit no one to enter or leave the chamber After the speaker's orders had been fulfilled the roll was again called Then ninety five members responded to their names

Speaker Walton then directed the sergeant at arms and his deputies to go out and bring before the bar of the house all members found in the city The officers soon appeared with Messrs Patchen of Chenango Raymond of Erie Tillman of Allegany Woodring of Northampton and Weston of Berks All gave reasonable excuses and were excused Seventy four others had left the city without leave, and twenty six had been excused

Weak, Tired, Nervous

"I was feeling as miserable as any one could feel, tired all the time, many times unable to go out on the street even after I had started. If I went up one flight of stairs I felt as though I should fall. I had palpitation of the heart and suffered greatly with catarrh of the head and throat. I finally decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon felt better. I used the third bottle and I then felt like a different person. I hope others in ill health will do as I did. If you take Hood's Sarsaparilla and use it faithfully I am sure you will be benefited. I have also found Hood's Pills to be of great benefit and I highly recommend them." # The Dry Goods Market

WAS
PLACED FOR THE BUYER.

There is absolutely no "dry goods trust." The subject is too large — competition is open and prices are low. Conspiracies to defraud the people exist in beef, in oil, in sugar, and 'legal' morality of the highest value (in cash) backs up the frauds. But let us rejoice that they build churches and endow universities with the results of their plunder. Great indeed is modern morality—legal, theological and commercial.

Let us all admire, imitate and get a nice obituary notice in the daily papers.

In the meantime buyers of Dry Goods should come and inspect our stock.

In every department the prices are low, the variety great.

ANOTHER CASE OF APPENDICITIS.

A Unionville Young Man in a Very Critical Condition.

Mr. George Culverwell, son of Mr. Wm. Culverwell, the hardware merchant in Unionville, is suffering from appendicitis. He was taken ill, last Sunday.

Yesterday the young man's condition was such that a consultation of physicians was deemed advisable by Dr. Nugent, who had the case, and Dr. Pillsbury, of this city, was called.

Dr. Pillsbury advised an operation for the removal of the appendix as soon as possible. There was some reluctance on the part of the family, for they feared he could not bear the shock, and no decision was reached, last night.

The report from Unionville, to-day, is that there is little hope for the young man's recovery.

TOOK A HANDFUL OF CHANGE.

An Electric Car Conductor Robbed Last Night.

One of the conductors on the electric cars had his pockets picked between Midway Park and Middletown, last night. His car was crowded and some one who had noticed him dropping nickels into his coat pocket, slipped his hand into the pocket and helped himself to about $2.50. It was a mean trick, as the thief well knew that the conductor would have to make good the shortage out of his slender salary.

BIG SHIPMENTS OF GRAIN.

Over 2,500 Carloads Handled at the Erie Elevator in Two Weeks.

A gentleman who is connected with the Erie elevator in Jersey City, says that within the past two weeks 2,500 carloads of grain have been unloaded at the elevator, and as many more will be, as fast as the grain can be handled.

As each car contains 1,000 bushels, it will be seen that 2,500,000 bushels have been handled in two weeks. The Central and Lackawanna roads are also handling large quantities of grain.

The gentleman also said that in many years of experience, he had noticed that one of the first signs of business activity is the movement of grain, and he is confident that we are now on the eve of a business boom such as we have not seen in several years.

Go to sleep, darling, as fast as you can;
For mother must hasten to don a new gown
And put in her vote for the good of the town.

Your mother's a voter; now, man child, be still,
And hush up your screaming, so piercing and shrill;
For be it known, man child, the time has come when
Your mother can vote with the manliest of men.

Now he who're I put you safe in your bed,
And don't you dare wiggle a hand or a head,
While I go with my new silk and stylish capote,
Oh, man child, the rapture, to cast my first vote.

And a brave and honest voter
Forever she will be!

LIMPY JIM.

The Leadville stage pulled out of Webster station one evening after supper with 12 "pilgrims" for the city in the clouds. Webster was the end of the track, and the route from there to the carbonate camp lay over the summit of Kenosha mountain, through the northern end of the South park and across the famous Red hill, a doubly significant title by reason of the color of the soil and the bloody murders committed there by the Mexican bandits, the Espinosos. From Red hill the road again enters the South park, passes through the old town of Fairplay, once boisterous with the gayety of pioneer gold diggers.

Red hill was the danger point on the first division of the road. Near the summit is a little basin, where the road is completely hidden from view on all sides. Little gulches lead up to this spot from the South park, affording every opportunity for road agents to reach the place unseen and to likewise make their escape. "Pilgrims" for Leadville usually were supplied with money, and a great deal of wealth originally intended for investment in the carbonate camp was turned over to gentlemanly persons who encountered the stage in the little basin on Red hill.

The individual who sat on the dusty old Concord coach and pulled the ribbons over six broncbos between Webster and Fairplay was known as Jim. I made his acquaintance while we were at dinner in the rough board "eating house" at Webster. He was a tall, slim, muscular man, with a swarthy complexion, dark eyes and a heavy mustache, black as jet from the copious use of dye. He wore high topped boots, with extremely high heels, and his feet were small and delicately shaped. His trousers were of gorgeous plaid material, but the bottoms were worn inside his boot tops. A wide brimmed white slouch hat was cocked rakishly on the side of his head. Some garish jewelry adorned the front of his waistcoat. There was a jaunty air about him which was less pronounced by reason of the stiff and awkward way he carried his arms. I attributed this to the natural effect of driving six spirited horses for years over a mountain road.

He had formerly been a gentleman of fortune, and at one time in his career had amassed a considerable sum of money in the game of chance known as draw poker. When he was at the height of his prosperity, another gentleman of fortune, late of Texas, drifted unostentatiously into camp and caused the report to be circulated that he was aching for a game. Jim undertook to relieve the gentleman of the pain he was suffering on that account, and they met in the back room of Uncle Billy Coleman's Palace of Fashion, on Main street.

There was a slight controversy in the early part of the game, caused by a remark of Jim's to the effect that "people from Texas seemed to have more luck than a Chinaman."

The gentleman from Texas demurred to this and said there was no such thing as luck in draw poker. The chance features of the game, he said, had all been eliminated by the application of skill and science. He then proceeded to demonstrate his assertion, which he did to perfection. At the end of six hours Jim's earthly possessions consisted of the suit of clothes he was wearing. Everything else he had owned in the world had passed into the hands of the skillful and scientific gentleman from Texas.

The Fairplay gambler arose from the table and relieved himself of some choice profanity, most of which was directed against himself. He declared that he was "better qualified to drive a stage than to pose as a gentleman of fortune." The superintendent of the stage line, who was present, jocosely offered Jim a job, and the penniless gambler in a spirit of bravado accepted it and declared then and there that he would never touch the "pasteboards" again as long as he lived.

The gentleman from Texas took his departure as unostentatiously as he had come, but leaving behind him in his room at the hotel a peculiar wire and elastic contrivance which puzzled the brain of the landlord to determine its use. Several persons to whom he exhibited it declared they had never seen anything like it before, but Jim at once recognized it as a contrivance known as a holdout, by means of which a player retained cards in his possession, secreted in his sleeves, which should be in the deck. The phenomenal "hands" held by the gentleman from Texas were no longer a mystery to Jim. He now understood that it was not "Chinaman's luck" that had beaten him, but this little contrivance, worn under the clothing, by the operation of which all elements of chance were eliminated from draw poker and the game reduced to a "dead moral certainty." It was true, as the gentleman from Texas had remarked, that luck cut no figure in the play. It was a question of skill and science.

As Jim was the only person in Fairplay who had anything like an intimate acquaintance with the scientist from Texas, the landlord presented him with the little implement that had worked the former's financial ruin. Jim's first impulse was to secrete the holdout upon his person and seek revenge upon the unsuspecting miners in the gulch, but he remembered that he had hired himself to the stage company and forsworn gambling. He was a man of his word, and a stage driver he became. It was a monotonous life until the road agents began to pay frequent visits to the line, and Jim liked it. The only thing that disturbed his serenity was the recollection of the gentleman from Texas. If he could but once meet that scientist face to face, life would take on new charms for him.

I had a seat beside Jim on the Leadville coach, and as the horses crawled slowly up the grade of Kenosha mountain, preparatory to a wild dash down the other side into the South park, I remarked to him that it was going to be a pleasant night. He replied that you never could tell much about nights in that country until the next day; he had seen nights just as promising as this one turn out real bad before daybreak. The very best of meteorological predictions were likely to fail in a country so thickly infested with gentlemen of the road.

I expressed a desire to have a view of Red hill as we crossed that famous elevation and wondered if the moon would be down before we got there. Jim vouchsafed the information that the moon would be up, but added that he had known people's appetite for scenery being permanently destroyed by gazing on Red hill by moonlight.

I was soundasleep with my head on Jim's shoulder when he nudged me and said:

"We're going up Red hill now. Help yourself to the scenery, and if you've got any valuables about you you'd better hide them. We're liable to see more things than scenery."

Then the horses came to a sudden stop, and Jim and I were looking down the muzzle of a revolver in the steady hand of a horseman beside the wheelers.

"Will you step down for a moment, driver?" asked the gentleman on horseback.

Jim replied that he was just thinking of getting down, as he was tired of sitting. I followed him and took my place beside him in time to see the other passengers descend one by one from the inside of the coach with their hands above their heads and take a place in line beside us.

There were but two of the road agents. While one of them relieved the passengers of their weapons and all articles of value the other was in the front boat of the stage securing the treasure box.

When the first robber came opposite to Jim, he drew back in surprise, exclaiming, "Well, I'll be hanged!"

For a second only he was off his guard, but that brief space of time was a fatal one. A pistol cracked, and he fell shot through the head.

"Bang, crack!" went two more shots. Both took effect. The second road agent reeled and fell from the boot of the stage, and Jim was lying beside the first robber. It was the big six shooter of the man on the stage that had answered Jim's first shot, and it was the crack-of-a-derringer that had terminated the brief battle.

Jim was wounded in the leg. A young doctor in the party stanched the flow of blood, and we proceeded on our way with the bodies of the two bandits thrown into the hind boat.

The shooting was shrouded in mystery so far as the passengers were concerned. They had seen Jim's six shooter taken from his holster by one of the bandits, after which a careful search had been made to see that he had no other weapon, but when we picked him up a derringer was clasped in either hand. The question was how had he managed to conceal them and bring them into use at such an opportune time? The mystery was solved when his clothing was removed at the hotel in Fairplay. Under his waistcoat was the wire and elastic poker holdout formerly belonging to the gentleman from Texas. The nippers for holding the cards had been removed, and a circular clasp large enough to securely hold the handle of a derringer had been attached in their place. The gentleman to whom the contrivance originally belonged was in the hind boot. His surprise upon recognizing Jim accounted for his presence there.

Jim's leg was broken, and the doctor informed him that when he recovered that leg would be shorter than the other; that he would always limp when he walked.

"It's all my own fault," said Jim.

"I don't see how you can make that out."

"Well, it was this way: When I let the derringers down into my hands, I calculated to shoot the man on the boot with the gun in my right hand an take the highest feller with my left, but just then I recognized him as the gent I was mostly seekin after, a gent from Texas who skinned me out o' my pile with this yere hold out, an, doc, the temptation was too great. I give it to him with my right, an it took me too long to get a head on the other one. But, say, doc, this science is a great thing."

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored One of Kentucky's Business Men to Health.

NO DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiarities as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nerveless, as LaGrippe.

Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Kentucky, says: "In 1889 and '90 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, the last one attacking my nervous system with such severity that my life was despaired of. I had not slept for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupefied me, but gave me no rest. I was only conscious of intense mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker.

When in this condition I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In two days I began to improve and in one month's time I was cured. Much to the surprise of all who knew of my condition. I have been in excellent health since and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends."

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for thirty-three years and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system being affected considerable. I have often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for to break the tobacco habit.

Yours truly, JOHN RODDEN,

Dear Sirs—I have used chewing tobacco very extensively the past thirty years. I tried so-called "No-To-Bac" and other remedies, but without success, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I continued chewing tobacco while taking the preparation and find that the horrible craving for tobacco has left me, and I consider myself cured. I can fully recommend "Baco-Curo" to any person wishing to break themselves of the tobacco habit.

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr James Reid, of the town of Burnside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to lose his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.

Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S. Sawyer of Atlantic, County of Cass, State of Iowa, having been an inveterate smoker of tobacco, bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1894. Began taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit. "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man. Hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain, Yours truly,

WM. S. SAWYER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.

Gentlemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully, P. H. MARBERY,
Pastor C. P. Church, Clayton, Ark.

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb. 4, 1895.

This is to certify that I, F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo." I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason I could not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. I did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then I bought the goods and thank God and all concerned, I am a sound person to-day. Hoping that this may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain, Yours respectfully,

F. D. KRAEMER.

THE DAYS AND THE YEAR.

What is the world, my little one?
Our world belongs to that clock, the sun.
Steady it swings; while the clock beats true
Days and seasons for me and you.
And tick, tick, tock, goes the mighty clock,
While time swings on below,
Now left, now right, now day, now night,
With a tick, tock to and fro.

The pussy willow in coat of fur,
A sweet pink rose in the wind astir,
A maple leaf with a crimson blush.
Then falling snowflakes and winter's hush.
While tick, tick, tock, goes the mighty clock,
And the world swings on below,
Budding, blowing, shining, snowing,
With a tick, tock to and fro.

A little song when the heart is glad,
A little sigh when the way is sad,
Whether the shadows or sunbeams fall,
Sweet rest and dreaming at last for all,
While tick, tick, tock goes the mighty clock,
And the world swings on below,
Smiling, sighing, singing, crying,
With a tick, tock to and fro.

So is the way, my own little one,
Our world belongs to that clock, the sun,
And the hand that somewhere keeps the key
Is the same that holdeth you and me,
While tick, tick, tock goes the mighty clock,
And the world swings on below,
Now left, now right, now day, now night,
With a tick, tock to and fro.

—Harriet F. Blodgett in St. Nicholas.

FROM CRADLE TO GRAVE.

Life's Moving Panorama Illustrated In a New York Street Scene.

A living picture of life's moving panorama was presented at Broadway and Twenty-third street one day last week. It was a procession. It was a procession formed by chance, but the utmost deliberation could not have made it tell a plainer story of life.

First came a wagon piled high with baby carriages—frail little vehicles to carry frail "inches of humanity" as they began the uncertain journey over the tortuous ways of this world.

Then followed a pony cart carrying two laughing boys advanced only far enough in the great highway of life to realize that there were roses in the path, but not to know of the thorns.

Behind the boys, in a dogcart drawn by a high stepping cob, were two youths on the threshold of manhood. One wore on the lapel of his coat a college pin on a bit of blue ribbon, the other a pin of different design on a yellow knot of silk. They were engaged in earnest conversation, apparently suggested by a highly colored theater poster representing a young woman who was advertised to appear on some stage.

A clanging gong was close behind, and a cable car crowded with impatient business men was hurrying its load to their posts to make the daily start in the wild race for money.

Next a handsome pair of horses, a stylish carriage, coachman and footman on the box, and in the carriage a rotund, red faced man, past middle age, and beside him a richly arrayed woman trying to appear to be on the sunny side of that middle line. Prosperity was written on every part of the equipage.

Then came an ash cart, and its dust, borne on the wind, reached and annoyed the occupants of the carriage. The driver walked at his horse's head, bowed, but not with years, and his face bore the marks of toil that had extended over his life since early youth.

Close behind the ash cart, with black horses, black plumes and a solemn visaged driver, came a hearse.—New York Herald.

A Long Road.

Farmers down in Dixie, like those in New England, have a very grim, but none the less indisputable, sense of humor on occasion, if this anecdote from Georgia is to be credited:

A farmer returning from town with an empty produce wagon overtook a young man plodding along with the discouraged air of a city man unused to dirt roads.

"Hullo, Jersey," cried the stranger briskly. "Can a man get a lift to Vineland?"

"I don't see why he can't," responded the farmer in a noncommittal way.

"Then I'll take a ride," said the stranger, vaulting into the wagon and making himself comfortable.

After three or four miles had been traversed, the stranger paused in his inconsequential talk long enough to observe:

"It's quite a distance to Vineland."

"Yes, it is a distance," admitted the farmer.

Another mile was passed, and then the stranger inquired:

"About how far is it to Vineland?"

"Well," replied the farmer meditatively, "keepin straight ahead the way we're goin now, it's about 25,000 miles, but if you'll get out and hoof it back, it ain't more'n about six or seven."

A Historic Bridge Destroyed.

HARTFORD, May 18.—The old East Hartford bridge, about which so much controversy is now going on in the legislature, was destroyed by fire last evening, only the small draw on the Hartford side being saved. The fire started at 8:15, presumably from the electric trolley wires at the East Hartford end, and spread to the Hartford end under the strong draught, setting at naught the efforts of the firemen. Engine 3's men had a narrow escape. Their hose wagon and horses were burned. The structure was built in 1818 at a cost of $135,000.

Row in Pennsylvania Baseball League.

READING, Pa., May 18.—Trouble of a serious character is pending among the members of the State League of Baseball clubs, on account of the refusal of Manager Whitman, of the Reading team, to pay 40 per cent. of the gate reciepts from games played here to the visiting teams. President Hanlon threatens to form another team in Reading in opposition to that controlled by Mr. Whitman. The latter is considering an offer to take his team into the Eastern League.

Another New York-Brooklyn Bridge.

ALBANY, May 18.—The bill authorizing the construction of a suspension bridge over the East river between New York and Brooklyn was returned to the clerk of the assembly approved by Mayor Strong, of New York, and Mayor Schieren, of Brooklyn. This means that the bill will undoubtedly become a law, as Governor Morton has made it a practice to follow such approval of a bill with his own approval.

Ohio's Grape Crop Ruined.

CLEVELAND, May 18.—Information from the Euclid grape belt indicates that Thursday night's frost destroyed over two-thirds of the grape crop. This district generally escaped damage on Sunday night, but the heavy frost of Thursday night caused extensive destruction. The loss to grape growers in the district is conservatively estimated at $500,000.

Ruined the Strawberry Crop.

NASHUA, N. H., May 18.—Frost ruined 12,000 boxes of strawberries, almost ready for the market, on one farm, and on another farm grape vines were damaged to the extent of $1,000. The loss in the peach orchards at Mount Vernon is also heavy, and all the farmers in this vicinity report severe losses because of the frost.

Three Years for Attempting Suicide.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Recorder Goff sentenced Henry W. Rall, 39 years old, to three years in the state's prison for attempting suicide. Rall was found on May 6 last with a bullet hole in his head, which he admitted he had inflicted in an attempt to commit suicide.

More Frost Damage in Pennsylvania.

EASTON, Pa., May 18.—A heavy frost throughout Northampton county blighted the early vegetables and destroyed the blossoms on fruit trees and grape vines. In Bushkill valley the ice formed on ponds and did great damage to crops.

Cattle Killed by Lightning.

WINSTON, N. C., May 18.—A wind, rain and hailstorm did immense damage to crops of all kinds in Westfield township, Surry county. Many buildings were blown down and a number of cattle were killed by lightning.

Russia's Demand on Japan.

LONDON, May 18.—A dispatch which The Standard publishes from Berlin says that Russia demands the cession to her of the Island of Quelpaert, lying between Japan and Corea, and not Port Lazereff as previously stated.

The Tichborne Claimant Confesses.

LONDON, May 18.—The People publishes a sensational statement by the Tichborne claimant, which is a virtual confession of his fraudulent attempts to obtain the Tichborne estates and title. He admits that he is Arthur Orton, the son of a butcher of Wapping. The statement is accompanied by a sworn affidavit attesting the truth of his confession.

New British Minister to Japan.

LONDON, May 18.—E. M. Satow, British minister at Tangier, Morocco, has been appointed British minister at Tokio, Japan, in succession to the Hon. P. LePoer-trench.

An Eccentric Englishman's Will.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 18.—The will of John Herron, an eccentric Englishman who came to Indianapolis thirty years ago from Cincinnati, was probated yesterday afternoon. He left an estate of more than $250,000, and all of it except a few thousands to remote relatives goes to public institutions. The Indianapolis Art association is to receive $225,000. Herron was unknown to a single member of the association, and never visited the art exhibits so far as is known. A month ago he went to California for his health. There he was accidentally burned, and the injuries resulted fatally. He was 70 years old.

WITCH HAZEL OIL

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY!

The times are hard, but here is a good show. In the last month I have made $175 selling Canary Dish Washers. I never saw anything take like they do. When any women see me wash the dishes, clean and dry them in one minute, they buy one right away. Anyone can make $8 a day right at home easy. I have no canvassing, no parades, are the people for the Climax. They send for them. Write to the Climax Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio, and they will send you circulars. It is easy selling what everybody wants to buy. I will make $5,000 this year easy.
